

Background

Founded in 1994, TouchLogic is a leading provider of automated customer communications that allow companies to engage, inform and communicate with their customers in a timely, interactive and cost-effective manner. Our services include Automated Voice Messaging solutions that utilize pre-recorded voice messages to contact a virtually unlimited number of customers. By combining the latest technology with professional voice talent, TouchLogic offers a high return solution that delivers immediate, measurable and highly effective customer campaigns.